

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Position: Housing Support Worker

Summary: Matawa First Nations are nine independent First Nations who have come together to address the high number of Matawa First Nation children in care in First Nation communities and in the city of Thunder Bay, which are taking a toll on individuals, families, and communities in both the short and long term. Matawa First Nations Chiefs called for the development of community-based, culturally appropriate and responsive housing models for individuals with a focus on building independence and capacity building. This position provides Housing support in a 21-unit living space for Matawa community members and supports the administrative needs of the Program.

Qualifications/Requirements:

The incumbent must possess and have proficient knowledge in the following areas:

- A post-secondary degree related to social science, political science, public policy, or public administration.
- A minimum of 2 years of positive experience working with Indigenous Peoples and/or First Nation programs and policies; or an equivalent combination of education, training, and experience acceptable to Matawa First Nations Management.
