

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Position: MECC Clinical Nurse – RN/RPN

Background:

Incorporated in 2017, the Matawa Health Co-operative (MHC) is a Matawa First Nation owned and controlled health co-operative that provides health care services to enhance existing health services to achieve long-term health and well-being for all members within the nine (9) Matawa First Nations. It is overseen by a Board of Directors and is a member of the Health Care Co-operatives Federation of Canada. The MHC is community-driven with available services being tailored to individual community's needs. It is the first of its kind in Canada.

The MHC works to incorporate traditional healing and medicines in addressing the wholistic health needs of the Matawa First Nations focusing on the priorities of mental health and addictions, diabetes and chronic diseases.

The organization is accepting applications for MECC Clinical Nurse – RN/RPN.

Position Summary:

The MECC Clinical Nurse provides comprehensive, client-centered care to students within the MECC. Working closely with the MECC Physician, Nurse Practitioner, Diabetes Educator, dietitian, and MECC staff, the nurse delivers wholistic clinical services including medical assessments, bloodwork, immunizations, wound care, and chronic disease management. This role supports student and community health through health promotion, education, and collaboration with internal and external health partners. The MECC Clinical Nurse contributes to a safe, supportive, and healthy environment while participating in quality improvement initiatives, maintaining clinical standards, and ensuring seamless coordination of care across the MECC.
