

INTERNAL/EXTERNAL POSTING EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Position: Awashishewiigiihiwaywiin Next Steps Youth in Transition Worker

Background: Formed in 1988, Matawa First Nations Management (Matawa) is a Tribal Council providing services to nine member communities in Northern Ontario. The organization is dedicated to providing its members with advisory and support services in the areas of communications, economic development, education, finance and business, health, membership and technical services.

Matawa First Nations Chiefs called for the development of community-based, culturally appropriate and responsive care models for children with a focus on prevention and family reunification.

The Next Steps Youth in Transition Worker position is to assist youth 18-26 years of age who are exiting the Child Welfare System to transition successfully from care to independent living. Services are driven by the youth, targeted and focused, responsive to individual needs, and sensitive to the social, linguistic and cultural diversity of youth. The Youth in Transition Worker will also support youth to connect to existing supports and resources within their communities including, housing supports, education resources, employment services and training, life skills training (e.g., financial management, household management), health and mental health services, through a culturally responsive lens.

Matawa is inviting applications for the position of Youth in Transition Worker with the Matawa First Nations Management Awashishewiigiihiwaywiin Program.
