

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Position: Mental Health & Wellness Lead (Two Year - With Possibility of Extension)

Background:

Incorporated in 2017, the Matawa Health Co-operative (MHC) is a Matawa First Nation owned and controlled health Co-operative that provides health care services to enhance existing health services to achieve long-term health and well-being for all members within the nine (9) Matawa First Nations. It is overseen by a Board of Directors and is a member of the Health Care Co-operatives Federation of Canada. The MHC is community-driven with available services being tailored to individual community's needs. It is the first of its kind in Canada.

The MHC works to incorporate traditional healing and medicines in addressing the wholistic health needs of the Matawa First Nations focusing on the priorities of mental health and addictions, diabetes and chronic diseases.

The organization is accepting applications for Mental Health & Wellness Lead.

Position Summary:

The Mental Health & Wellness Lead plays a key leadership role in overseeing prevention-focused and wellness-based service delivery, case management and programming through a wholistic lens that addresses the physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual aspects of health. Service delivery is guided by Indigenous culture, values, and traditions. This role works as part of an inter-disciplinary leadership team, overseeing a team of travelling mental health professionals. They are responsible to work in collaboration with mental health employees and small travelling teams to assist with strategic planning and oversight of services (including but not limited to: supervision, program/service evaluation, and ensuring ethical, community-responsive care and service delivery across the lifespan).
