

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Position: Mental Health – Registered Nurse - Fixed Term (Two Years)

Background:

Incorporated in 2017, the Matawa Health Co-operative (MHC) is a Matawa First Nation owned and controlled health Co-operative that provides health care services to enhance existing health services to achieve long-term health and well-being for all members within the nine (9) Matawa First Nations. It is overseen by a Board of Directors and is a member of the Health Care Co-operatives Federation of Canada. The MHC is community-driven with available services being tailored to individual community's needs. It is the first of its kind in Canada.

The MHC works to incorporate traditional healing and medicines in addressing the wholistic health needs of the Matawa First Nations focusing on the priorities of mental health and addictions, diabetes and chronic diseases.

The organization is accepting applications for Mental Health – Registered Nurse.

Position Summary:

The Mental Health Registered Nurse provides community-based mental health nursing services across Matawa First Nations communities within a collaborative, inter-professional practice model. The scope of this position includes assessment, counselling, education, crisis intervention, care coordination, and program development related to mental health and addictions. The Mental Health Registered Nurse works with individuals, families, and groups across the lifespan, and collaborates closely with First Nation staff, community leadership, Indigenous Services Canada nursing staff, and external service providers. The position requires the ability to work independently within established medical directives and professional standards, while responding to diverse and complex community mental health needs in a culturally safe and trauma-informed manner.
