

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Position: Nurse Practitioner – MECC, 0.5 FTE

Background:

Incorporated in 2017, the Matawa Health Cooperative (MHC) is a Matawa First Nation owned and controlled health co-operative that provides health care services to enhance existing health services to achieve long-term health and well-being for all members within the nine (9) Matawa First Nations. It is overseen by a Board of Directors and is a member of the Health Care Co-operatives Federation of Canada. The MHC is community-driven with available services being tailored to individual community's needs. It is the first of its kind in Canada.

The MHC works to incorporate traditional healing and medicines in addressing the wholistic health needs of the Matawa First Nations focusing on the priorities of mental health and addictions, diabetes and chronic diseases.

The organization is currently accepting applications for a Nurse Practitioner – MECC

Position Summary:

The Nurse Practitioner is an integral member of the multi-disciplinary team and a key part of the patient's circle of care, practicing within the full scope outlined in the Standards of Practice by the College of Nurses of Ontario. With the support and guidance of the Clinical Lead of the Matawa Health Co-operative or their designate, the Nurse Practitioner provides on-site primary care services for two half-days per week at Matawa Education and Care Centre and offers mental health support within their practice scope, including assessment and medication management, while also serving as the access point for Psychiatry and Psychologist services. Services are delivered with a holistic approach to support MECC students, clients, communities, and Matawa members.
