

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Position: MHC Interpreter – 1 Year Contract

Background:

Incorporated in 2017, the Matawa Health Co-operative (MHC) is a Matawa First Nation owned and controlled health co-operative that provides health care services to enhance existing health services to achieve long-term health and well-being for all members within the nine (9) Matawa First Nations. It is overseen by a Board of Directors and is a member of the Health Care Co-operatives Federation of Canada. The MHC is community-driven with available services being tailored to individual community's needs. It is the first of its kind in Canada.

The MHC works to incorporate traditional healing and medicines in addressing the wholistic health needs of the Matawa First Nations focusing on the priorities of mental health and addictions, diabetes, and chronic diseases.

The organization is accepting applications for MHC Interpreter.

Position Summary:

With the support and guidance from the Clinic Manager or their designate, the employee will work with a multidisciplinary team to provide translation services to clients and families of the Matawa communities. The interpreter will facilitate effective communication between individuals/families who do not share common language.
