

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Position: Support Worker - Full Time contract until March 31, 2027

Background:

Incorporated in 2017, the Matawa Health Co-operative (MHC) is a Matawa First Nation owned and controlled health Co-operative that provides health care services to enhance existing health services to achieve long-term health and well-being for all members within the nine (9) Matawa First Nations. It is overseen by a Board of Directors and is a member of the Health Care Co-operatives Federation of Canada. The MHC is community-driven with available services being tailored to individual community's needs. It is the first of its kind in Canada.

The MHC works to incorporate traditional healing and medicines in addressing the wholistic health needs of the Matawa First Nations focusing on the priorities of mental health and addictions, diabetes and chronic diseases.

The organization is accepting applications for Support Worker.

Position Summary:

The Support Worker plays a key role in ensuring that the MHC operates in a clean, safe, and welcoming environment for staff, community members, and visitors. Under the direction of the Director of Health Transformation or their designate, the Support Worker provides general maintenance support both inside and outside the MHC building. This includes basic cleaning, moving furniture or supplies, and assisting with seasonal gardening and groundskeeping tasks. This position is hands-on and community-focused, contributing to the wellbeing and functionality of MHC by maintaining a safe and organized physical space in alignment with MHC values. The Support Worker also actively supports food sovereignty and gardening initiatives while contributing to a collaborative team environment.

For more information, please review the Support Worker job description.
